

OUR TEAM

CHRIS GELTING, CONSULTANT

Chris Gelting brings nearly 30 years of banking experience with expertise in commercial banking, credit administration, portfolio management, credit risk assessment, loan documentation, and relationship banking. He has held leadership positions in commercial banking, credit administration, consumer lending, mortgage banking, and collections/workouts, providing broad experience across the credit lifecycle.

As a Consultant with Integrity Loan Review, Chris assists community banks and financial institutions with evaluating credit quality, assessing portfolio risk, strengthening underwriting practices, and improving credit administration processes. His experience as both a lender and credit manager allows him to provide practical, actionable recommendations that support sound risk management and responsible growth.

Chris previously served as Senior Vice President of Commercial Banking and Credit Department Manager at Westbury Bank, as well as Credit Manager for Talmer Bank and Trust. His career also includes leadership roles with TCF Mortgage Company, where he gained experience in credit analysis, loan structuring, operations management, portfolio oversight, software implementation, and team leadership.

His banking experience includes commercial loan underwriting, credit approval and risk rating, portfolio management, commercial real estate lending, problem loan identification and workout, credit policy, relationship development, and business development. His areas of expertise include commercial real estate, C&I and relationship banking, agricultural, residential and consumer lending, commercial loan review, credit administration and risk assessment, loan portfolio analysis and management, underwriting and loan structuring, and leadership and strategic planning.

Chris is also committed to community leadership, having served as Chairman of the Lake Geneva Tourism Commission and District 1 Alderman for the City of Lake Geneva, in addition to his involvement with Oconomowoc Rotary.
